

Welcome to Trimbakeshwar

Welcome to the sacred land of Trimbakeshwar, Nashik, one of the most important pilgrimage destinations associated with Lord Shiva and the Trimbakeshwar Jyotirlinga.

At Trimbakeshwar, devotees perform various Vedic rituals and traditional Hindu pujas for spiritual devotion, ancestral rites, planetary remedies, health and well-being, marriage-related concerns, and other religious purposes.

Pandit Chandrashekhar Guru Ji performs these sacred rituals with proper Vedic procedures, traditional mantras, puja materials, and personalized guidance according to the nature of the puja.

This guide provides an overview of six important pujas and explains how devotees can perform them in Trimbakeshwar.

WHY PERFORM PUJA IN TRIMBAKESHWAR?

Trimbakeshwar is a major pilgrimage destination in Maharashtra and is home to the Trimbakeshwar Jyotirlinga, one of the twelve revered Jyotirlingas of Lord Shiva.

Devotees visit Trimbakeshwar for Shiva worship, ancestral rituals, Vedic ceremonies and other traditional religious practices. Performing a puja with an experienced Pandit Ji can help devotees understand the required procedure, Sankalp, puja materials, mantras and concluding rituals.

1 Narayan Nagbali Puja

OVERVIEW

Narayan Nagbali Puja is a traditional three-day Hindu ritual consisting of two important rituals: Narayan Bali and Nag Bali.

According to Hindu tradition, Narayan Bali is associated with ancestral peace and religious rites for certain forms of untimely or incomplete death, while Nag Bali is traditionally performed as a form of religious penance associated with the killing of a serpent.

The complete Narayan Nagbali ritual is performed under the guidance of a qualified Pandit Ji following traditional Vedic procedures.

WHY IS NARAYAN NAGBALI PERFORMED?

Devotees traditionally perform this puja for:

- Ancestral peace and related religious rites
- Rituals associated with Pitra Dosh
- Religious penance related to Nag Bali
- Family-related spiritual concerns
- Traditional ancestral remedies

The specific reason for performing the puja can vary from family to family.

HOW IS IT PERFORMED IN TRIMBAKESHWAR?

Narayan Nagbali is generally performed over three days. The rituals may include:

1. Sankalp and purification rituals
2. Vishnu Puja and Tarpan
3. Shraddha and Pind Daan
4. Narayan Bali rituals
5. Nag Bali rituals
6. Havan and other prescribed Vedic ceremonies
7. Completion and concluding rituals

Pandit Chandrashekhar Guru Ji guides devotees through the required procedures and explains the rituals throughout the three-day ceremony.

2 Kaal Sarp Puja

OVERVIEW

Kaal Sarp Puja is a traditional Hindu ritual performed by devotees who believe that Kaal Sarp Dosh in a birth chart requires a religious remedy.

The ritual involves the worship of Lord Shiva, Nag Devata and other deities according to the prescribed puja procedure.

WHY IS KAAL SARP PUJA PERFORMED?

Devotees may consider this puja when their horoscope is interpreted as having Kaal Sarp Dosh. It is traditionally associated with prayers for:

- Peace and spiritual balance
- Relief from horoscope-related concerns
- Removal of perceived obstacles
- Family and personal well-being
- Seeking the blessings of Lord Shiva and Nag Devata

A horoscope consultation can be done before deciding whether this ritual is appropriate.

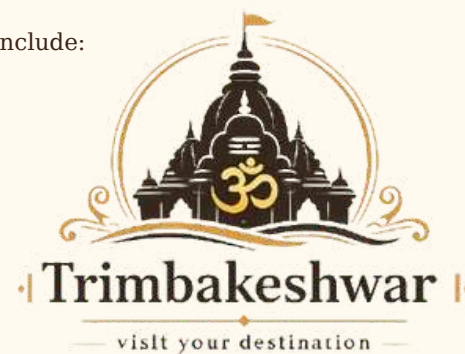

HOW IS KAAL SARP PUJA PERFORMED IN TRIMBAKESHWAR?

The puja is performed under the guidance of Pandit Chandrashekhar Guru Ji and may include:

1. Sankalp
2. Ganesh Puja
3. Kalash and deity worship
4. Nag Devata worship
5. Shiva Puja and Abhishek
6. Mantra chanting
7. Havan
8. Purnahuti and concluding prayers

The exact procedure may vary according to the devotee's horoscope and the type of ritual being performed.
